

I am concerned about translators being given priority over locally-based low-power FM radio.
It is very important to our city that radio be a place for local voices, not simply duplication of broadcasts.
Please protect locally-based low-power FM stations against translators that will only serve to hog local airwaves.

Thanks for your consideration.